From Vernon L. Everett:

William Mack Davis has a connection to my Everett - Rayner line. See Attached. His mother was most likely Frances (Fanny) Fagan Blount Davis. Early Martin Co. (NC) marriages were lost, so we may never know. Why would anyone name a child Stephen Fagan Davis unless there was a family connection. The name also comes out in another generation.

James E. Jackson is buried in the old Baptist Church Cemetery in Plymouth. Jackson genealogy enclosed.

The arthritis in my spine has caused the disc to bulge and put pressure on the nerves. This causes weakness and pain in the legs. I am taking shots in the spine and physical therapy. Little help so far. An operation may not help either but that is the last resort.

I am willing to help researchers with what I have but my digging in courthouses is past.

1. Isaac Jackson - 1665 - 1750 m. Anne Evans - came to Hyde Co. from ?
2. Thomas Jackson - 1698 - 1785 m. Mary Boardman.
3. Isaac Jackson - 1723 - ? M. Sarah Watson.

4. Eleazer Jackson m. Marah - moved from Hyde to Beaufort 1780-90.
5. Isaac Jackson m. Nancy Stubbs.
(See group sheet - this issue)
Levi Stubbs - 1760? 1815? Son of Thomas Stubbs II and unknown
Thomas Stubbs II son of Thomas Stubbs I and Mary Everett.

William M. Davis 1850 Wash. Co. Census # 199

1. Frances was most likely his mother - age 56 - a Fagan???
2. Eliz. 18 and Emeliza 16 were most likely his sisters.
1860 Washington Co. Census # 477
1870 Wash. Cop. Census (Copy - this issue)

The name Stephen Fagan is interesting. Stephen Fagan born after 1755, son of Bedford and Mary Fagan married 1st Mary Everett, 26 Dec. 1782, the daughter of Nathaniel Everett III and Mary Griffin. They had 1 known child, Sarah, who married William Collins 4 Sept. 1799. M. E. F. was dead by 1792. Stephen married Anna Unknown who may have come from the Jones family. Stephen Fagan's will probated March 1813 in Martin Co. listed wife Anna, daughters(:

1. Leah, married Nathaniel Chesson, son of John & Mary Mackey Chesson __ (Millpond area.)
2. Sarah Collins m. William Collins
3. Fanny who married a Blount m/2 Wm. Hosea Davis???
4. Harriet
5. Mary (Polly)

It is an interesting story but the 1820, 1830 - 1840 Wsh. Co. census do not reflect the presence of William Hosea Davis. Try the deed books,

Washington and Martin Counties and Martin Co. census.

Re: Yeager - The only Yeager found in listed Plymouth Township cemeteries is: Ella Brady Yeager - Feb. 12 1851 - July 26 1913.

Captain William Downing, Mariner

William Downing (1) married first Mary Garrett Bailey Lee, whose first husband was John Bailey, and second was Thomas Lee (1) of Lee's Mill. Stevens Lee (1) was the son of Thomas Lee (1) and Mary Durant Scott Blount Lee. Thomas Lee (2) was the son of Thomas Lee (1) and Mary Garrett Bailey Lee. The Thomas Lee (2) mentioned in Capt. Downing's will was his stepson, not son-in-law, Stevens Lee (1) married Sarah Barrow, daughter of James and Sarah Barrow. Stevens Lee (1) married, second, Elizabeth Morris, daughter of William Morris and Elizabeth Browning.

Stevens and Elizabeth had one son, Stevens (2) who married Mary, daughter of Richard Fagan and Sarah Everett. Stevens (2) left a will in 1779.

Capt. William Downing married, second, Dorcas Slade. The Slade family had settled in Hyde County, near Bath. William and Dorcas had one child, William Downing (2). Capt. William Downing died in 1739.

William Downing (2)

William (2) married Ann Barrow, daughter of James and Sarah Barrow. William and Ann had three children:

1. Mary Downing. She married Evan Jones - bond 5 August 1758. Evan's first wife had been Elizabeth Morris Lee, widow of Stevens Lee (1), Evan and Mary had one child, Mary, who died in 1779, unmarried. Mary Downing Jones married, second, Michael Heron. The bond is dated 24 December 1768.
2. Elizabeth Downing married James Long, bond 12 April 1762.

1. Richard Downing married Huldah Mackey. Bond 7 November 1797.
2. Stephens Downing married Elizabeth ?. William Downing (2) left a will dated 24 February 1748, and probated the following month. Children of Stephens Downing and wife, Elizabeth, known to this researcher, are:

  2. William Downing. Married Harriet Harrison. Born October 28, 1809, married October 25, 1832. William died March 5, 1843. Their children were:
    1. Margaret J. Downing. Born 1835.

From Eugene Chesson

gchesson@cablone.net Subject: Mackey (and Fagan) You can pass on to Janice L. Mackey that my ancestry includes early Mackeys. John Chesson (c 1777-1835) m. Mary Mackey (c 1784-c 1822) who was the daughter of William Mackey (-bef 1795) and Suzannah Walker (-) and the granddaughter of William Mackey (ca 1700- c 1766) and Joanna Swain (1715- bef 1765). I would like to determine better dates for the above as well as any earlier Mackey relations. In addition, I have early Fagan interests, typically prior to 1800 and would like to develop that line a bit better as well. My grandfather and great grandfathers were both named Friley Fagan Chesson and I believe (but can not yet prove) that came from Nathaniel Chesson (1800-bef 1870) marrying Leah Fagan (c 1801- ) daughter of Stephen Fagan (ca 1755- est 1813) who descended from Bedford Fagan whose father was Richard Fagan. The WCGS May issue had considerable later Fagan info. Gene Chesson (520) 778-6789 - Gene later added: Frankly, I know very little about my early Fagan ancestors and thus do not know whether they may have owned slaves. It has been some time since I worked on that line but I don't recall that they were particularly well-to-do in terms of land holdings, estates, wills, etc. Records that I have been able to access have not provided a lot of detail and it took me some time to infer that the Leah who married Nathaniel Chesson was likely a Fagan, daughter of Stephen. But such is the challenge of genealogy and family history! And: I checked the copies of Fagan wills in my files.

Enoch Fagan 16 Jan 1777 mentions "negros" but no names;

Levi Fagan 1 Oct 1837 mentions "negro boy, Cesar";

Richard Fagan 29 Nov 1773 mentions "negro man, Season, negro garle, Thina, negro girl, Nanny, negro girle, Bess, negro woman, Buck."

Sarah Fagan, 23 Jul 1780 mentions "negroe wench, Barbary" and "boy named Holloway."

Stephen Fagan 24 Dec 1810 mentions "negroes Esther, Henry, Rose, Peter, and May"

Inventory of William Fagan March 1759 mentions "negro girl, Sue, negro boy, Peter"

Newspaper Articles

Dare County Times, Fri. 19 June 1936: John Adams Shaw Visits in Manteo. Genial Old Gentleman Teacher and Preacher Has Excellent Memory of Names.

"An old gentleman who was born on Nov. 6, 1866, who has preached in 22 states, taught school in five eastern NC Counties and remembers a lot about his travels, peeped through the window of the Dare County Times office last Saturday afternoon and someone on the inside bid him inside. It was John Adams Shaw of Elizabeth City. He is now well ripe with years, but still an active thinker. Soon he learned that the chap who bid him "come in" was a Mason and straight way he recalled that he once taught a man by the name of Clyde Mason in Mount Pleasant school in Washington County. That Clyde Mason was the father of the chap to whom he was talking. The old gentleman also knew the rest of the Mason family and a lot more people in Washington and Tyrrell counties and the unusual thing about it is that he still remembers their first names. Mr. Shaw is an Elder of the Primitive Baptist belief and through 22 states, over a period of 40 years he has preached this gospel. He taught 20 years during his early manhood in Washington, Beaufort, Wilson, Tyrrell and Pasquotank counties. One thing he recalled about his school boy days was that he was a classmate of Judge L. M. Meekins of Elizabeth City in the old Academy in Columbia. (From: Albemarle Genealogical Society Newsletter, Vol. XX, No. 2, April 2001, Spring Quarter)
